Paris Runway Report: Vivienne Westwood

"Leonard Peltier is innocent..."

(PARIS) 64-year-old designer Vivienne Westwood did not shy away from bold political statements in her collection today, presenting theatrical clothes inspired by Greek themes and the case of American Indian activist Leonard Peltier, who was convicted of killing two FBI agents in 1975. Models sported buttons reading 'Innocent', and Westwood was quoted as saying, "Leonard Peltier is innocent. He's been in jail for 30 years now."
